The KU-KSDE Summer Conference

“Strategies for Educational Improvement: Partnerships for Results”

This is a FREE day of professional development for teachers, administrators and others interested in P-12 education. The keynote speakers include Turner Gill, new head Football Coach at KU who will talk about teaching and student athletes. This will be followed by Diane Debacker, Interim Commissioner of Education, who will set out the challenges facing educators in these difficult economic times. Then a panel of leaders and another panel of KS teachers of the year will discuss the challenges facing districts, schools and classrooms. In the afternoon participants will have the opportunity to attend three sessions among over 25 being offered on topics including MTSS, technology, assessment, differentiated instruction, bullying, reading instruction, curriculum alignment, and much more.

A continental breakfast and lunch will be provided.

A full agenda will be forwarded to you after you are registered.

Space is limited so please register by June 1.
